WOOSAH

A SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR WOMEN OF COLOR WORKING IN CORPORATE

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Rahkal Shelton Roberson is a certified professional life coach workplace peace advocate, speaker, CEO and inspiration enthusiast. With 12 years of corporate experience—she has worked for well-known companies, including CNN, Warner Media, WGN, iHeartMedia (formerly Clear Channel Communications), and Fox Chicago News. Rahkal has a master's in media communications and training and is an HBCU alum. She is passionate about helping individuals find harmony and strategy for thriving in life.

NO, IT'S NOT JUST YOU, AND YOU'RE NOT TRIPPING!

Let's be honest; the majority of the corporations we're working for weren't founded with us in mind. It is no secret how stressful, challenging, and difficult working in corporate America can be, especially for women of color.

But guess what, Sis? You made it, and most of us had to fight really hard to get here. We've worked long hours, continued our education, moved across the country, and made countless sacrifices. Now, wouldn't it be nice to feel respected, valued, and be equally compensated?

Wouldn't it be nice to create more significant contributions toward our careers while navigating the corporate beat down more effectively? Look no further; help is in your hand. But, first, let's take a deep breath and woosah.

FEATURED ON MAJOR PLATFORMS INCLUDING FORBES, WGN, & HUFFPOST

Woosah: A Survival Guide for Women of Color Working in Corporate is guaranteed to help you better navigate the workplace while keeping your confidence, cool, and peace of mind. Packed with down-to-earth commentary, unfiltered and relatable stories, exercises, and practical tools in it, Rahkal provides invaluable advice for tackling thorny topics like discrimination, wage gaps, biases, toxic environments, self-worth, boundary setting, and community building. This humorous and energetic guide is for the woman who's ready to thrive.
